

Editorial policy checklist

This form is used to ensure compliance with the editorial guidelines of «ScienceRise: Biological Science» related to research ethics and reproducibility. For more information, please visit our website. All questions in the form must be answered.

Authentication information of the author for correspondence (corresponding author) filling out the form

Name

Surname

Manuscript title

Conflict of interestConflict of interest statement

In the interest of transparency, and to help readers make their own judgments about possible bias, «ScienceRise: Biological Science» requires authors to declare any competing financial and / or non-financial interest in the described work in the presented manuscript. Detailed information on the conflict of interests (if any) are not disclosed (forms of conflict of interest statement from each author of the article are provided separately).

We declare that none of the authors has competing financial or non-financial interests.

We declare that one or more authors have a competing interest.

AuthorshipAuthorship information policy

Before sending, all of the listed authors must agree with the entire content of the manuscript, the list of authors and its order, as well as the statements of the authors. Any changes to the list of authors after submission of the manuscript must be approved by all authors.

We have reviewed the authorship policy of «ScienceRise: Biological Science» and confirm that this manuscript complies with it.

Bioethics policy1. Studies involving animals

For primary research manuscripts that report experiments on living vertebrates and / or higher invertebrates, the correspondent author must confirm that all experiments were performed in accordance with relevant guidelines and rules.

The manuscript includes a statement indicating the institutional and / or licensing committee approving the experiments, including any relevant details.

No animals were involved in the study.

2. Studies involving people

For a study in which people are participants of the study, authors must identify a committee approving the study and include in their manuscript a statement confirming that informed consent has been obtained from all participants.

The manuscript includes a statement indicating the institutional and / or licensing committee approving the experiments, including any relevant details.

Informed consent from patients was obtained.

The study did not involve people.

3. Publication of images of participants in studies involving people

In the manuscript of the article included a statement confirming that informed consent was received for the publication of identifiable images of the participants.

The signed informed consent for the publication of identifiable images of the participants is attached to the article.

There are no identifiable images of the participants in the manuscript of the article.

4. Studies involving plants or microorganisms

The manuscript of the article includes permission to use plants and / or microorganisms from another country.

The manuscript uses plants and / or microorganisms from the country of the author.
Description of plants and / or microorganisms meets the requirements.

The manuscript does not use plants and / or microorganisms

5. Manuscript of the article

Materials submitted in the article have not been published previously.

The manuscript of the article is designed according to the requirements of the journal.

Analytical data are statistically processed.

The manuscript of the article includes the entire necessary list of documents.

Article Title:Affirmation of Authorship

We the undersigned certify that each author has participated in and has contributed sufficiently to the work to take public responsibility for the appropriateness of the experimental design and method, and the collection, analysis and interpretation of the data and that this final version has been reviewed and approved for submission and/ or publication. We also certify that the sequence of authorship below is identical to that on the submitted manuscript.

Author Names and Order

1.

2.

3.

4.

5.

6.

If the authors of the article are more than 6, please contact the editorial office for the appropriate form.

Key

To qualify for authorship, you must check at least one box in each of the three categories of contributions listed below.

Category	Author Number	1	2	3	4	5	6
I	Conception and design
I	Acquisition and data
I	Analysis and interpretation of data
II	Drafting of the manuscript
II	Critical revision of the manuscript for important intellectual content
III	Statistical analysis
III	Obtaining funding
III	Administrative, technical or material support
III	Supervision
III	No additional contributions
III	Other (please specify below)

Date